

means any form of intimidation, reprisal including but not limited to the submissions of knowingly false bullying allegations, or harassment directed against a student who reports bullying, provides information during an investigation, or witnesses or has reliable information about bullying. Retaliation is prohibited and will result in the imposition of appropriate interventions/consequences according to this policy.

---

In the decision whether or not inappropriate behavior constitutes bullying, administrators will consider

- b. Individual interviews, allowing the alleged perpetrator and target to provide their complete history of the report incident.
- c. A determination of how often the conduct occurred, any past incident or continuing pattern of

---

---

[ ]

---

---

[ ]

---

---

---

[ ]